Heritage luxury crossed with hard-edged technology. Monochrome, exacting, quietly dominant. Every element carries weight and intent — the absence of color is the statement.

STRICTLY MONOCHROME + METALLIC

BACKGROUND	SURFACE	BORDER
Obsidian #0A0A0B Primary canvas. The default state of every surface.	Graphite #141416 Cards, panels, raised sections against obsidian.	Steel #4A4C52 Hairlines, dividers, secondary strokes.
TEXT	MUTED	ACCENT
Alabaster #F4F4F2 Primary text and headlines. Never pure #FFF.	Fog #B8BABF Body copy, supporting text, captions.	Champagne #C6A667 Value signal. One per view. Never fill large areas.

Champagne is used sparingly — one accent per view, reserved for the single element that signals value. Never fill large areas with it. Silver is for hairlines, dividers, and secondary interface strokes.

LAYOUT RULES

- All spacing derives from an 8px base unit — 4, 8, 16, 24, 32, 48, 64, 96.
- Page gutters: 96px desktop, never below 24px on mobile. Protect the negative space.
- Zero border-radius everywhere. Sharp geometry only — no rounded corners, no soft shadows.
- Separate with 1px steel hairlines, not shadows or elevation. Depth comes from contrast.

Voice & Tone

DISCIPLINED · EXACTING · DOMINANT

Every visitor should leave with one word in mind: elite. Write with precision and restraint. State value; never sell it.

DO

- + Lead with precision — concrete nouns, exact numbers, verbs that do work.
- + State value plainly and let the work carry it. Confidence is quiet.

DON'T

- No hype, exclamation marks, or superlatives ("amazing", "revolutionary").
- No soft, decorative, or apologetic language. Never hedge or over-explain.

+ Keep sentences short and engineered. Every word earns its place.

- No trend-speak or filler. If a line can be cut without loss, cut it.
